乐曲介绍 Synopsis

《山谣随想》为竹笛与民族管弦乐队而作。作品具有较为强烈的 ,以首福建清流地区的民歌《山歌不唱愁闷多》作为创作背景,通过多种方式的材料发展、配器手法及速度变化展现不同意境与画面的山谣印象。

作品共有五个部分：

第一部分：行板，乐曲以笛子独奏的方式渐入，打击乐节奏框架作为全曲的重要素材，不断穿插在这一段落里。打击乐浓重沉稳的音响与笛子空旷的声音相互辉映，表现出一种质朴、淳厚的音调。

第二部分：小快板，带有颗粒性的弹拨乐音色与打破重音的节奏，使音乐具有舞蹈般的韵律。笛子的旋律充满阳光与活力。

第三部分：中速，竖琴用流动的节奏型作为背景铺垫，笛子旋律悠扬的歌唱，像似一幅山水画。

第四部分：快板，音乐转为紧张的情绪，弹拨乐与打击乐紧凑的节奏贯穿其中，笛子吹出短小急促的音组，在强劲的推动力下将音乐发展到高潮，将民歌《山歌不唱愁闷多》的旋律完整的呈现出来。

第五部分：尾声。运用了乐曲开始的材料，同时也是象征意义上的再现。

作品通过各个部分不同的配器手法、不同层次的音色对比以及速度和力度的变化来实现音乐的整体组织、结构与表现。在多次速度的变化下，作品仍追求自然流畅的结构观念。

The Capriccio of the Mountain Fork Song is a work for bamboo flute and Chinese orchestra, with a strong Nanyang music style. Taking the folk song Singing Folk Songs to Relieve Worries and Hardships from the Qingliu region of Fujian as the background of creation, it unfolds folk ballad impressions with different artistic conception and images through the development of various materials, orchestration techniques and speed changes.

The work consists of five parts:

Part 1: Andante. The music is introduced in the form of a flute solo, with the percussion rhythm framework as an important material for the whole work, interspersing in this part from time to time. The heavy and steady sound of percussion music echoes with the spacious sound of the flute, presenting a simple and pure tone.

Part 2: Allegretto. The granular plucked music tone and stress breaking rhythm make the music have a dance-like melody. The melody of the flute is filled with the sense of sunshine and vitality.

Part 3: Moderato. The harp uses the flowing rhythm as the background, playing along with the melodious flute melody, just like a landscape painting.

Part 4: Allegro. The music turns into tense emotions, with a compact rhythm of plucked and percussion music running through this part. The flute plays short and rapid notes, pushing forward the music to its climax with strong driving force, and completely presenting the melody of the folk song Singing Folk Songs to Relieve Worries and Hardships.

Part 5: Ending. It uses the material applied at the beginning of the song, which is also a symbolic representation. With the help of different orchestration skills, different levels of timbre contrast, and changes in speed and strength of each part, the work achieves the overall effect of organization, structure, and expression of the music. Despite multiple changes in speed, a natural and smooth structural concept is still pursued in the work.
